

ELEVENTH ANNUAL COB FILM FESTIVAL

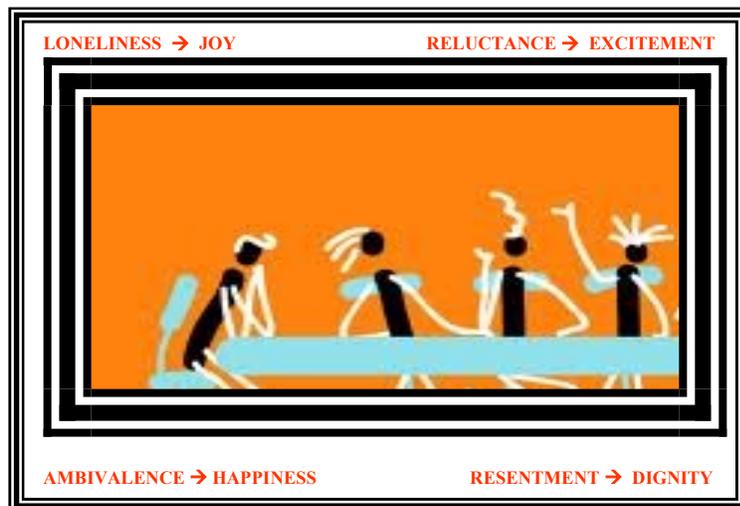

EXPLORING LEADERSHIP EMOTION IN MOTION FILM FESTIVAL

“SHOULD I RETURN OR SHOULD I GO?”

LEADING WITH EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE DURING PANDEMIC PERIOD*

A Comedy Film Festival about Leading with Emotional Intelligence*
Presented by the Student Teams at the COB

December 2, 2021, Thursday
Free Admission
Virtual Modality at Zoom
3:00-4:30 pm, PST, Pacific Standard Time

Registration Link: https://csuscba.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_6R94mD2gH2MnvIG

(Please RSVP until December 1, 2021 by registering via the above link.)

* This year's film festival will feature 5 comedy films produced by the COB students, utilizing some of the most influential leadership theories to explore how emotionally intelligence can help leaders affectively manage employees' return to physical work in this pandemic period. Professor Mandy O'Neill, a leading scholar on emotions research from George Mason University, will provide a live commentary on the films and participate in an interactive forum with audience to integrate these films. A jury panel will choose the Best Film.

This event is sponsored by the Dean's Office at the COB.

PLEASE JOIN US... WE WILL LEARN WHILE HAVING FUN!