

2 POSITIONS OF ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT AND/OR ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Montpellier Business School (Montpellier, France)

ABOUT THE SCHOOL

Founded in 1897, Montpellier Business School (MBS) is a vibrant, innovative, and dynamic business school. It is triple accredited (AACSB, EQUIS, and AMBA) and offers a wide range of graduate and undergraduate programs including BBA, Master's, MSc, Executive MBA, and DBA programs, as well as tailor-made executive programs. In 2021, the BBA was the second-best bachelor's degree in France according to "L'Etudiant" ranking and the Master's in Management was ranked 56th in the world by the Financial Times. MBS welcomes approximately 4,000 students every year. Its main campus is ideally located in the south of France, in the city of Montpellier, which is one of the most attractive and fastest-growing cities in France.

MBS' vision is to actively participate in the construction of a sustainable economy and society. This vision is shared and fulfilled by our 100+ faculty members (international faculty: 65% - 30 nationalities) who are dedicated to developing excellence both in teaching and research. MBS' teaching and research activities cover all traditional areas of management science. Every year, our faculty members publish over 150 articles in peer-reviewed journals listed in the CNRS, FNEGE, ABS, and FT50 rankings. 25% of these articles focus on societal themes that fit with the school's core values of ethics, openness, diversity, global performance, and social responsibility.

ABOUT THE POSITIONS

MBS invites applications for 2 permanent, full-time positions of Assistant Professor of Strategic Management and/or Entrepreneurship. The appointments are expected to commence September 1, 2022, and the selected candidates are expected to relocate to Montpellier or nearby area.

The first position is opened to candidates whose research and teaching interests lie in strategy, strategic management, sustainability, and/or social inclusion.

The second position is opened to candidates whose research and teaching interests lie in entrepreneurship, social entrepreneurship, social innovation, and/or innovation ecosystems.

MBS offers salaries and conditions that are competitive and in line with national standards (e.g., relocation policy to support the moving process, French language courses for faculty members and their families, health insurance, benefits package, and a complementary pension scheme).

The research environment is vibrant and teaching loads are attractive. A high level of research support is provided, including a generous individual budget for conducting research and attending conferences.

MBS is looking for candidates who:

- Hold a PhD in management, strategy, entrepreneurship, or a closely related field from a recognized institution (or will complete their PhD before September 2022)
- Conduct research consistent with the interests of MBS faculty members. Conducting research in areas consistent with the core values of the school is an asset
- Can show evidence of their ability to publish high-quality research in leading peer-reviewed journals
- Have teaching experience and show awareness of teaching and learning innovation
- Are able to teach in English (being able to teach in French is not required but is an asset)

The candidates will be expected to:

- Publish regularly in internationally recognized peer-reviewed journals (e.g., journals listed in the FT50 or classified in category 4*, 4, or 3 in the ABS List)
- Teach high-quality courses at undergraduate and/or postgraduate level
- Participate actively in service activities (e.g., supervise master theses, participate in student selection and recruitment, service in committees), in proportion with the academic rank
- Take part in the department's activities (e.g., research workshops, friendly reviews)

APPLICATION PROCEDURE
