

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR POSITION IN SUSTAINABILITY

POSITION AT SKEMA BUSINESS SCHOOL (FRANCE)

The Skema Centre for Sustainability Studies (SCSS) at SKEMA Business School has opened a full-time assistant professor position in Sustainability. We are looking for motivated candidates with an excellent or highly promising research record and demonstrable teaching skills. The successful candidate will be located on one of the three French campuses.

Starting date: end of August 2024

The assistant professorship at SKEMA is a permanent position with research and teaching obligations. Salary and conditions are in line with European standards. SKEMA Business School offers publication bonuses for peer-reviewed publications.

REQUIREMENTS

- Hold or about to complete a Ph.D. in sustainability from a world-class institution, with an interdisciplinary research focus combining knowledge of sustainability with knowledge of a discipline relevant to business schools, such as strategy, management, organization, innovation, entrepreneurship.
- Strong evidence of recent research productivity and/or demonstrable potential to publish research on sustainability in journals highly ranked on the CABS-FNEGE-FT50 lists.
- Teaching excellence in sustainability or related fields.
- Ability to work as part of a team in a collegial environment.
- The language of work and teaching is English. Knowledge of French is not required and won't be used as a selection criterion. SKEMA offers support in learning French.

EXPECTATIONS

- Publish peer-reviewed publications in top-tier journals.
- Teach courses in sustainability, but also in strategy, organization, management, innovation or entrepreneurship.
- Supervise master students.
- Show academic citizenship, commit to the life of the institution, and contribute to projects related to the School's strategy.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

While the vacancy will be officially opened in September, candidates interested in the position can apply for a preliminary interview at the Academy of Management Annual Meeting, August 4-8, in Boston or online via Teams.

We welcome requests for an interview by July 23rd. For the preliminary interview package, please send (i) your CV, (ii) a cover letter, and (iii) a job market paper to: eva.niesten@skema.edu with subject: "Interview@AOM2023". Clarification questions can be directed to Prof.dr. Eva Niesten.

Please note that SKEMA is an equal opportunity employer, which values all types of diversity, and encourages applications of candidates from all backgrounds.
